REPUBLICANS

Becoming Less Afraid of Roosevelt and Now Openly Attack Him.

G. O. P. Editor Cites Teddy's Losing Fights in the Past Few Years.

Confidence Due to Fact That President Wilson Is Not Improving Position.

CANDIDATES FOR NEXT YEAR

The Republican leaders and their followers in the East have begun to fight Roosevelt openly in the past few days and are delivering some hot broadsides in regard to his candidacy. Several weeks ago the Roosevelt organs launched a campaign for Teddy and openly dared the G. O. P. to repudiate him, the bluff working at first, but now the Republicans have taken courage and are in the attitude of telling him to go and do his "durstest," as they will without him, and are sincere in believing that the good old Progressive strength in line. The following is a sample of the Republican opinion and is taken from the card of a Massachusetts Republican editor to the New York Sun:

"This year what happened to Roosevelt and his friends in California? The regular Taft Republicans refused to compromise with them in any way, ignored them entirely, with the result that the regular Republicans carried the primary by 50,000 plurality. "What happened to Roosevelt and his friends in Massachusetts? They were snowed under in the primary. "What happened to Roosevelt in New York in 1914? He stump every county in the State and attacked Gov. Whitman as Barnes' candidate and tried to defeat him, with the result that Whitman was elected by 145,000 plurality. "In the State of Pennsylvania the same year Roosevelt attacked Senator Penrose, who was a candidate for United States Senator, with the result that Penrose was elected by 236,000 plurality. "This proves that when a man is wrong he can't repeat his wrong, and the people who were misled in 1912 can not be misled in 1916. The people of this country have made up their minds to elect a Republican President, and if the Chicago convention has the good sense and sound judgment to nominate a straight out Republican there will be no such thing as defeat for the Republican party in this campaign. To nominate an apostate would be suicide."

Now for the Democratic standpoint. Conceding that Wilson will be renominated, the conservative men in the party are beginning to ask themselves if he will be strong enough to defeat a Republican nominee outside of Roosevelt. There can be no question but that Wilson has lost ground in the last several weeks, regardless of the pro-English press who are busy daily abusing and spurning the "hyphenated vote," as they term it, and chain all of the rest for Wilson. The policy of the administration in Mexico hasn't won a single friend for the Democratic party. The haggling with Carranza while the other cut-throat was allowed to get further away disgusted pretty nearly everyone. Then the pro-English attitude of Wilson and his cabinet drove the German-American vote, of which it must be conceded there was 20 per cent, at least of that vote in the Democratic party, and the loss is not least the threatened loss of the Irish-American vote and support because of the statement made and not successfully denied that Roger Casement and his friends were betrayed into the hands of the British by the Wilson administration. That this is believed by many is shown in the overflow mass meetings in New York City and elsewhere this week when Wilson's name was roundly hissed. Again our President has ever been ready to protest against the massacre of Armenians, the persecution of Jews in Russia and the treatment of Belgians, but to date there has been no expression from him concerning the cold-blooded murder of the Irish revolutionists by John Bull, or protest at the action of his English friends in carrying the man Connolly from a hospital and bracing him against the wall to be shot. This pretty near explains why the Republicans believe they can win without Teddy, as they see Wilson getting weaker.

A group of local Democrats the other day in discussing the State convention to be held at Lexington Wednesday pressed the fact that all would be harmonious and drifted into discussion of next year's municipal election. One man was of the opinion that Sheriff Charley Cronan would make a pretty good candidate for the Democrats to seat as the Mayorality. Another while others spoke of Charley Grainger, ex-Mayor Head, Peter Lee Atherton and Ben Washer. Drifting from that office it was the unanimous opinion that Lorraine Mix would be about the strongest timber available for County Judge, while Will Holley would make a strong contestant in some county race.

KNIGHTS SET EXAMPLE.

One of the councils of the Knights of Columbus in an Eastern city has adopted a very beautiful manner of remembering their deceased members. Instead of sending a floral tribute this council has decided to send $15 to the Catholic Church Extension Society, McCormick building, Chicago, upon the death of a brother member for the purchase of a chalice in his memory, to be sent to some poor mission. The chalice will bear the name of the member in whose memory it is given, as well as the name of the council who gave it. This is an example worthy of imitation by many of our other Catholic organizations.

ORPHAN PICNIC.

The second meeting of the Catholic Orphan Society in K. of C. Hall drew a large and enthusiastic audience Monday night, when the following parishes were represented: Cathedral, St. Mary Magdalen's, St. Cecilia, St. Louis Bertrand, St. Charles Borromeo, St. John, St. Columba, St. Francis of Rome, St. James, St. Philip Neri and Sacred Heart. Gratifying reports were made by the Chairmen of various committees. Few of them have selected their full quota of members. It is desired to have the members of the committees selected from as many of the parishes as possible, and in order that appropriate selections may be made a mass meeting has been called for next Monday night at the K. of C. Hall of all Catholics, male and female, young and old, and workers will be called for from the audience.

The Dairy Lunch Committee, Lee R. Yates, Chairman, so far appointed are as follows, although other names will be added hereafter:

Messdames M. T. Higgins, William Mehan, John A. Hoerter, C. A. Walschmitt, John Gorman, Mike Coughlin, John Mulloy, Murphy, Thomas McDonough, Frank Elvin, Harry Veceneman, James McCarthy, Munch, W. G. Davies, Frank Sierstetter, E. G. Schaefer, Lula Grady, Lizzie Hale, Herman Klefer, Annie Nevils, Henry Wolf, Mary E. Schuck, Nellie Meyer, Edward Brady, Misses Josie McCormack, Virginia Sheekey, Alice Sheekey, Adele Adelberg, Margaret Norton, Ray McGuire, Mary Desse, Catherine Johnson, Katie Devine, Lillian Devine, Caroline Adelberg, Edna Lananhan, Ruth Lananhan, Mayme Johnson, E. Higgins, Mary Stammerman, Annie McSwaney, Maggie McSwaney, Mable Hale, Pauline Hale, Edith Dowling, and Messrs. Lee R. Yates, Henry A. Wolff, Robert T. Knopp, William Stammerman, John M. Mulloy, Thomas Mulloy, John Murphy, S. S. Greenwell, Stephen Wickham, John Schnell, William Habich, Albert Habich, August C. Wolf, Albert Brand, George Schumate, Barney Campbell, A. Montedonico, Jr., John Scully.

Harry T. Colgan and John A. Doyle are members of the Executive Committee, the other names being published last week. Aggressive work is needed to realize the financial results that the promoters have in view. The Chairmen of the committees are all prominent Catholics and are putting initiative and force back of their work. This is being supplemented by advice and practical help from well known Catholic ladies and gentlemen from all parts of the city. A great gathering is confidently expected for next Monday night when a mass meeting of all Catholics, as above stated, will be held.

AMBASSADOR TO RUSSIA.
David R. Francis, now in charge of United States affairs at Petrograd.

PRIEST'S JUBILEE.

The Rev. Joseph A. Glennon began Sunday the celebration of the silver jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood, and the Annunciation church, 1650 North Paulina street, Chicago, of which he is pastor, at the same time celebrated the golden anniversary of its founding. Archbishop Mundelein, Bishop Muldoon, Auxiliary Bishop McGavick, and more than 100 of the clergy took part in the various services, seven of the latter being sons of the parish. Father Glennon was born in Louisville, Ky., in 1860. He was educated at St. Ignace College, Chicago, and St. Mary's, Baltimore, and was ordained in Chicago in 1891 by Archbishop Keenan. He became pastor of Annunciation church in 1910.

HELP BUILDING FUND.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle of the Sisters of Mercy at 1152 East Broadway will give their annual bazaar and lotto next Wednesday and Thursday. Hand-painted china and fine needlework by the Sisters will be devoted to the building fund. Those who attend are assured a really delightful time.

SUPPLYING UNITED STATES ARMY IN MEXICO.
Long lines of army wagons as shown in photo are constantly making their way from the border line to the various supply bases of the army in Mexico. The sandy soil prohibits the use of automobile supply trains.

BUGBEAR

How the Separation of Church and State Is Being Interfered With.

Silly Claims of Those Who Are Hostile to the Catholic Religion.

Object to Use of Public Institutions for Any Exclusive Propaganda.

THE PROPER AND ONLY STAND

The separation of State and Church is a matter much insisted upon in this country. It is declared to be an important feature of the American idea. "Patriots" declaim loud and long on the danger of its nullification by the forces of Rome. That Catholicism will destroy this happy condition of affairs in America has been repeatedly announced to us. It is in fact one of the bugbears of the anti-Catholic campaign. Little is said, however, of the encroachments of Protestantism on this principle. This is not because much could not be said. In our State institutions and our public schools the non-Catholic denominations have been at work for some time to make these places centers of Protestant propaganda. The proposal for Bible reading in the schools is one phase of this movement. Weakened as they have been by their endorsement of the present system of public instruction, they are endeavoring to recoup by taking over the products of this system for the advancement of their own ideas at the expense of the State.

In the agricultural colleges has this practice been particularly marked. This the Central Bureau of the Rural Protestant church is falling into decay. It has been deeply injured by the conflict with its rival churches of other denominations. It is seeking now to reassert itself through the assistance which the State agricultural colleges can give it. At Purdue University, the State institution of Indiana, for example, an annual church conference was held during the present month. Not one Catholic priest was on the programme, and not one was even invited to the meeting. It is plainly a gathering in the interest of the Protestant rural churches and the extension and upbuilding of their work in the rural communities. Bulletins sent out from the university had the title of "The Protestant Rural Church." The conference was taking place on the dates set forth. Surely this is directly aiding sectarian enterprises in their activities. These efforts to strengthen the Protestant country churches through State aid and the focusing of attention on their problems through conferences under State auspices is not of entirely recent origin. It dates back to a number of years ago. The monthly bulletin of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture for April, 1914, in its report of the Missouri Country Life Conference, shows that a great part of the conference was devoted to the problems of the Protestant churches. The first speaker on the programme dwelt upon the weakening of the churches through "the old sectarian spirit" and of the need of burying the differences which had led to this condition of affairs. "The Church in Country Life Development," "Church Administration," "The Leadership Plan and its Purpose," dealing with the problems of rebuilding the church, were among the subjects discussed, all being treated by Protestant ministers. In addition, a professor from the Bible College, conducted in conjunction with the State University at Columbia, to which publicity has been given by that institution, spoke on "Means of Rural Progress." It was a thoroughly Protestant programme, and the speeches were published in full by the State of Missouri and distributed by it.

HAD HAPPY DAY.

Last Sunday was a happy day for the little children sheltered at St. Joseph's Orphanage. It was their annual celebration and an event looked for with intense interest. The orphans were brought into the city and were met at St. Boniface church by the Knights of St. John, Catholic Knights Uniform Rank and the St. Joseph Orphan Society, who acted as escort to St. Elizabeth church, where Rev. Father Assent and his people had prepared an elaborate reception. Quite a number of Louisville priests assisted at the solemn vespers and benediction, and an eloquent and feeling sermon was preached by the Rev. H. J. Rothwell, pastor of St. Francis of Assisi church. After the services the orphans were entertained at dinner, when they rendered several pleasing numbers in appreciation of the treatment accorded them.

FORTY HOURS.

Tomorrow morning the Forty Hours' Adoration will begin at St. Columba's church with a solemn high mass, with the Rev. Father John Kalaher, the pastor, as the celebrant. The devotion will continue until Tuesday, and while they continue a number of visiting priests will assist Father Kalaher.

CONFUSION

Over What Is Meant by the Temporal Power of the Pope.

Well That Position of the Holy Father Should Be Clearly Understood.

Roman Pontiff Should Be Independent of Every Civil Power.

EMPTYNESS OF THE GUARANTEES

Almost daily every week messages appear in the daily press to the effect that this belligerent power or that has entered into a compact with the Vatican, by which the temporal power of the Pope is to be restored. On the subject of temporal power of the Pope there is much confusion of thought, and it is well that the position of the Holy Father should be clearly understood. On September 20, 1870, the Italian forces entered Rome through a breach in the walls of the city at the Porta Pia, and deprived the Pope of the temporal sovereignty that had been held and exercised in the interests of the Catholic church and Christian civilization for over a thousand years. There was no element of worldly ambition in the assumption of temporal sovereignty on the part of the Popes. Once Europe was converted to Christianity, the temptation arose among temporal sovereigns to acquire and use the spiritual influence of the Pope for the promotion of political objects. Even if such pressure were not brought to bear the fact of the Pope being a citizen of any particular power would give rise to the presumption in outside nations that when acting in his spiritual capacity he would be swayed by the political allegiance. The one and only satisfactory means that has ever been devised for delivering the Catholic church from such difficulties was to make the Pope a temporal sovereign, with a territory independent of the temporal powers. And a temporal sovereign the Holy Father was through the centuries until his power was destroyed and the rights of Catholics throughout the world violated by the atheistical Government of Italy.

SACRED HEART CHURCH.

Everybody is planning to attend the May festival and candy pulling for the benefit of the Sacred Heart church, which takes place Monday afternoon and evening in the school hall at Seventeenth and Broadway. For this event the ladies of the Altar Society have been working very quietly but very efficiently, and equally successful are the managers of the country store. The afternoon will be given over to the children, and genial company insures a most enjoyable evening to the great number of people who will make this the occasion for a reunion of old and new friends of Rev. Patrick Walsh and the parish. There will be booths, wheels and refreshments, and all who attend are assured a really good time. This is the only affair given by the Sacred Heart church during the year, and always brings out a large gathering.

Almost daily every week messages appear in the daily press to the effect that this belligerent power or that has entered into a compact with the Vatican, by which the temporal power of the Pope is to be restored. On the subject of temporal power of the Pope there is much confusion of thought, and it is well that the position of the Holy Father should be clearly understood. On September 20, 1870, the Italian forces entered Rome through a breach in the walls of the city at the Porta Pia, and deprived the Pope of the temporal sovereignty that had been held and exercised in the interests of the Catholic church and Christian civilization for over a thousand years. There was no element of worldly ambition in the assumption of temporal sovereignty on the part of the Popes. Once Europe was converted to Christianity, the temptation arose among temporal sovereigns to acquire and use the spiritual influence of the Pope for the promotion of political objects. Even if such pressure were not brought to bear the fact of the Pope being a citizen of any particular power would give rise to the presumption in outside nations that when acting in his spiritual capacity he would be swayed by the political allegiance. The one and only satisfactory means that has ever been devised for delivering the Catholic church from such difficulties was to make the Pope a temporal sovereign, with a territory independent of the temporal powers. And a temporal sovereign the Holy Father was through the centuries until his power was destroyed and the rights of Catholics throughout the world violated by the atheistical Government of Italy.

A protest was made by Catholics against the unwarranted attack upon the independence of the Pope and Italy's answer to the protest was the "Law of Guarantees." What is that law? On May 15, 1871, the Italian Parliament passed a law whereby the Pope's person was to be sacred and inviolable; insult or injury to the Pope was to be treated on a par with the insult or injury to the King's person; royal honors were to be paid to the Pope; he was to have the right to the customary guards; the Pope was to receive an annual endowment for the needs of the Papal court and the upkeep of the churches; the Vatican and Lateran palaces, as well as the Villa of Castel Gandolfo, were to remain the property of the Pope. These articles were to assure the Pope and all engaged in the spiritual government of the church, as well as the College of Cardinals assembled in conclave, complete liberty of communication with the Catholic world and exemption from interference with their letters, papers and the like.

How have these guarantees been observed? Plus IX knew that there was no intention on the part of the usurper that they should be kept, and that they were simply a device to hush up the protests that had been called forth throughout the world and which threatened unpleasant consequences to Italy. The stipulations of the law were submitted to him before they came to Parliament and his criticism was: "It is no easy task to decide whether absurdity, cunning or contempt played the largest part in devising them."

And Plus IX. was right. The annual endowment has never been claimed and has of course never been paid. It is only those who visit Rome realize the invidious position of the Holy Father and the emptiness of the guarantees of the Government. Cartoons insulting the Pope are flaunted openly and in periodicals like the Nuova Antologia and the Rivista Massonica the most scandalous attacks are made on him.

Indeed only ten years after the law was enacted the Government failed to protect the funeral procession of Plus X, to the Basilica of St. Laurence, and allowed the mob to organize a hostile demonstration and to attempt to throw the body of the dead Pope into the Tiber.

Every Pope who has been raised to the chair since then has given expression to protests similar to those of Plus IX. In the encyclical, "Ad Beatissimum." Our present Holy Father, Benedict XV., says: "Too long has the church been curtailed of its necessary freedom of action, ever since the head of the church, the Supreme Pontiff, began to lack that defense of his freedom which the providence of God had raised up during the course of centuries. The loss of that protection has inevitably caused no light anxiety in the Catholic body; for all the children of the Roman Pontiff, whether near or living afar, have a right not to be left in doubt concerning the possession of their common father of a true and undeniable freedom in the exercise of his apostolic ministry." In 1905 Plus X wrote: "It is of vital importance for the Roman Pontiff to be in reality and in the opinion of the public in every way independent of every civil power, and to assure this no other means has so far been found except the establishment of an independent territory."

CENTENNIAL AT BARDSTOWN.

During the second week in July will be celebrated the hundredth anniversary of St. Joseph's church in Bardstown, the first Cathedral of this diocese, and arrangements are under way to honor the occasion with fitting and imposing ceremonies, worthy of the founders of this historic house of worship. No church west of the Allegheny Mountains has a more eventful history, or is more dearly loved by the State, but a monument to the Catholic world than this time honored and classic structure in which many of the ablest divines of the denominations in this country have labored, and which is not only a landmark in the geography of the State, but a monument to the early Catholic pioneers who gave to this church some of its most brilliant lights and made the present beautiful edifice possible. A statue commemorative of the sanctification of the church is being erected a few yards in front of the massive stone steps that lead up to the entrance. This statue is to be life size, surmounting a massive cut stone pedestal, and will be in perfect keeping with the other statues now in front of the church. The foundation and base are now being constructed and are massive and substantial in the extreme, for as Rev. C. J. O'Connell says, "He is not building for today, but for the future." The work of construction is well under way and will be completed in ample time for the centennial.

AMBASSADOR TO GERMANY.
James W. Gerard, who has handled the submarine controversy satisfactorily.

"BEST EVER."

Mackin Council Choral Club, presenting "The Soldiers" at Macaulay's the first half of the week, achieved the biggest success of its career. The Choral Club maintained its high reputation as those who heard the music and songs and witnessed the perfect work of the chorus proclaim it the best work ever accomplished by Aulyn Kanston. Misses Susan Christoph, Bertha Cohn, Evelyn Johnson and Betty Foster surpassed all expectations and won immediate favor with the audiences, while the work of Thomas D. Cline, Charles Parsons and Aulyn Kanston was all that could be desired. The chorus was perfect and in their pretty and striking costumes made a pronounced hit, being superior to many presented here by professional companies.

BELLEVUE.

Rev. Gerald Connolly, just ordained and who celebrated his first mass on Sunday at the Immaculate Conception church at Newport, has been appointed assistant pastor at St. Anthony's church, Bellevue.

HAVE HOPE

That Out of the Irish Uprising Home Rule May Be Granted.

Efforts For Reconciliation Between Sir Edward Carson and John Redmond.

Sir Roger Casement Committed on the Charge of High Treason.

ASQUITH FOR PRIVY COUNCIL

Hopes are now entertained that martial law will soon be repealed in Ireland and conditions will have reverted to their normal state. At any rate, it should be possible to dispense with all exceptional measures by July, in which event the great annual pilgrimage of the Reek takes place. The Reek, known as rough Patrick, is the Mount Zion of the Emerald Isle. For on its summit St. Patrick is said to have wrung from the angel many promises for the salvation of the people he had made his own.

From London the news up to Thursday was to the effect that while Premier Asquith remains in Ireland seeking a solution of the Irish problem, efforts are being made on the English side of the Irish Sea to bring together Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader, and John Redmond, leader of the Nationalists. In the hope that a reconciliation of the opposing factions may be effected. As it can be learned there have been no negotiations thus far, but it is considered a favorable sign that Unionists and home rule supporters are working together and making suggestions for a compromise.

The Manchester Guardian says that David Lloyd-George is about to take an active part in the effort for a settlement. It is said he has already met Sir Edward Carson and Joseph Devlin, Irish Nationalist member for Belfast, and that he has an engagement to visit the Ulster Unionists. The Guardian adds that Lloyd-George's scheme for a complete settlement on home rule lines would have powerful support in the Unionist press and that this section of the Unionist press would not support a bitter and inconclusive on the part of the Ulster Unionists. The Unionist press of London, with the exception of the Morning Post, which is strongly pro-Unionist, is urging a settlement. Early in the week it was cabled from Dublin that Premier Asquith's visit to Ireland, as it has been maintained, has been confined to frequent conferences with the civil and military officials. The suggestion, unofficially circulated, regarding the possibility of the formation of an Irish Executive Council for the management of the government of Ireland until the end of the war, appears to have made a good impression in Ireland. There has been much discussion of the subject in all quarters, but no confirmation of such a move has been given by officials.

The Dublin correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says he understands on good authority that Premier Asquith is to be sworn as a member of the Irish Privy Council, becoming by this fact a member of the Irish Executive. This is possibly the first step, the correspondent adds, toward re-establishment of civil administration in Ireland.

Sir Roger Casement and Daniel J. Bailey were committed for trial Wednesday for high treason. This decision was reached at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing of these men on the charge of participating in the Irish rebellion, which has been in progress since Monday. The date of the trial and the court in which it will be held have not yet been announced.

The following is an account of the death of James Connolly, sent out Saturday from Dublin: The hand of death has kindled the flame of fury in all Ireland. There is a muttering in the streets here and a threat in conversation. For the English have shot poor, wounded James Connolly. He was hurt when he went out. His leg was in splints—and those splints were honorable to the Irish. For James Connolly fell in the fighting around the Postoffice when Ireland struggled for freedom. Connolly was Commander-in-Chief of the Irish army of revolt. A firing squad fired out. They carried Connolly out on a stretcher. And they stood him against a wall. He couldn't stand alone, so they let him make a crutch of a gun. Connolly was pale when he faced them. The gray wall behind was reflected in his face. But it was not fear. It was the pallor of the prison and the sick. When the volley ripped away and died the British uncovered. Brave men admire brave men; enemies though they may be. And they're burying him in a traitor's grave.

PLEASANT SURPRISE.

Friends of Deputy Sheriff Denny Heffernan gave him a pleasant birthday surprise Wednesday night. Knowing that he was attending a Democratic conference, they proceeded to his home, headed by a band of music, when a hurry call brought him home. Mrs. Heffernan had thrown the house open and for several hours there was a royal time. The party numbered over twenty-five and brought with them many handsome birthday tokens.

DESTROY CHAIN PRAYER.

Every few months some people in the same community receive and send out the chain prayer. Nothing evidences more the inclination to superstition of the American people. The Catholic clergy have always condemned the practice and urged their people to destroy these chain prayers when a note accompanying them promises certain joy or threatens grief to the recipient, according as he heeds or heeds not the warning to rectify the prayer on nine consecutive days and remail the prayer to nine others. Has it ever occurred to you what an amount of postage and writing material would be required if the chain were continued even to the tenth set of persons? It would exceed $69,000,000. Destroy the next chain prayer you receive.

BIGOTRY IN FLORIDA.

Bigotry has reached its climax in Florida. On Easter Monday three Catholic Sisters were marched as prisoners through the streets of St. Augustine. Their crime was that they had taught colored children to read and write and to worship God. There is a law in the enlightened State of Florida forbidding white people to teach the colored children in schools erected for them. The law, though held to be unconstitutional, was placed upon the statute books of Florida. It was not, however, applied until in 1916, when the "Guardians of Liberty" came into power. They have now given the entire country an illustration of the liberty and enlightenment they have pledged themselves to secure for our land. The conditions existing today in the State of Florida are a disgrace to the men in high office who were elected to represent a whole people and whose oath of office binds them to measure out justice to all citizens of the State, regardless of class or creed; Florida is no place for men who love fair play and justice, who stand squarely on American principles of liberty, so long as the State is controlled by those who hate justice and trample on the rights of their fellow men.

AND WILL NOT.

The first resolution passed at the recent general convention of the Methodist church was to notify the President to stop serving wine to his guests. The hierarchy of the Catholic church are blamed for trying to run this Government, but they haven't got so far yet as to prescribe for the White House table. Thus comments Rev. Father Maher in the Catholic Advance.

RELIEVED FROM SUSPENSE.

The German reply to President Wilson's note is considered satisfactory in substance, and the danger of a break in diplomatic relations has passed for the present. The form of the reply, however, is not pleasing in official quarters. German diplomats are not adepts at phrasing-making, so the tone of the note is rather unsatisfactory. But we can let that pass. The important thing is that our friendly relations with Germany will not be interrupted. The President has written a note in reply, accepting the promises made of a due observance of international law by submarines, but making it clear that our controversy with Great Britain over its attempt to establish an illegal blockade is an entirely separate matter. This is not to be a three-cornered controversy, but two separate and distinct controversies—one with Germany and one with Great Britain. We have now assurances of a fair settlement of one of these, and perhaps we shall push the other with some vigor. We trust that further controversies will not arise to disturb the country unnecessarily. While we never believed there was danger of real war with Germany, the effect was the same as if that danger existed. There was agitation and counter agitation and protest which created hard feelings. Now that the storm has blown over, the country breathes easier. Only we wish the President wouldn't write any more notes to Germany. They are, as the True Voice says, too much of a shock to the feelings of war partisans in this country.

time and increase the already burdensome debt that hinders Shelbyville's progress. And upon all sides men are conceding that prohibition does not prohibit nor exclude liquor from dry territory.

Do not wait until the last moment to perform your Easter duty. You may die in the meantime.

ANSWERS POPE'S MESSAGE.

President Wilson has replied to the message sent him recently by Pope Benedict, in which the Pope expressed the earnest hope that war between the United States and Germany would not be precipitated by the submarine issue, and conveyed the impression that he hoped the United States might be of assistance ultimately in restoring peace to Europe. The reply of the President was conveyed through Monsignor Bonzano, the Apostolic Delegate, who delivered the Pope's message at the White House. White house officials refused on Wednesday to discuss the Pope's message or the reply of the President, but in other quarters it was indicated definitely that the exchange of messages had only remotely to do with the question of peace in Europe. The President is understood to have informed the Pope that he was very eager to keep the United States out of the war and would do everything possible consistent with maintaining the honor and rights of the United States. Neither message will be made public.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

In educational circles much interest centers about this year's meeting of the Catholic Educational Association, which will be held in Baltimore, June 26-29. This will be the thirteenth annual convention and, as the programme indicates, will be the center of important discussions and deliberations. His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons has taken a cordial interest in the local arrangements, which are now about perfected, and all delegates may rest assured that their welcome in Baltimore will partake of the real spirit of true Southern hospitality. The association extends an invitation to all Catholic educators, to pastors, teachers and to all who have the interests of Catholic education at heart, to be present at this convention and to help by their presence to promote the work of the association, which is of such vital importance to the church in this country.

JUBILEE AT ST. JOSEPH'S.

The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of St. Joseph's church on East Washington street will begin with elaborate and impressive ceremony tomorrow morning and continue until Thursday night. Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue will grace the high mass on Sunday with his presence, when Rev. Eugene Buttermann, O. F. M., will preach the jubilee sermon. In the evening at 7:30 there will be solemn vespers, and Rev. Richard Wurth, O. F. M., will deliver the sermon in English. Monday will be children's day with mass at 9 o'clock and sermon by Rev. Silas Lichtefeld, who was a boy of the parish. Tuesday morning there will be solemn mass of requiem for the deceased members of the parish as well as priests formerly connected with the church. The sermon will be by the Rev. Paulin Kranz, O. F. M., some years ago stationed with this congregation. On Wednesday and Thursday, both afternoon and evening, there will be social affairs, with a grand home-coming of all former members of the parish.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES.

The Catholic Knights and Ladies of America, founded in Louisville, will hold their thirteenth biennial convention in Indianapolis, opening Tuesday morning with a solemn high mass in the Cathedral, at which Bishop Chatard will pontificate. The business sessions will continue for at least three days. Louisville branches will be fully represented, the delegates leaving here in a special car Monday morning. Two of the Supreme officers, Rev. Charles P. Raffo, Supreme Spiritual Director, and Dr. Charles E. DeLeon, Supreme Medical Examiner, are from this city. The Louisville delegates are John B. Stiekler, Miss Mary Sheridan, Miss L. Stagenberg, M. J. McDermott, Miss Salie Winn, Miss Magie Brown, Miss M. Hannan, Charles Moore, Miss Katie Henley, Miss Catherine Mooney, Mrs. R. Mitchell, Mrs. J. Lurding, Mrs. Theresa Kast, Aug. Schmitt and Michael O'Keefe.

ATTENDS REUNION.

Rev. Francis O'Connor, of the Cathedral, has been spending the week in New York City, where he attended the alumni reunion of the American College of Rome. The meeting was held at the Hotel McAlpin, and was attended by many of the foremost American Catholic church dignitaries.

VINCENNES WANTS MONUMENT.

The Knights of Columbus of Vincennes, Ind., have determined to make every possible effort to have the Father Pierre Gibault monument erected in that city. The Knights of Columbus in their State convention held in Lafayette last week voted to erect a suitable monument in honor of this pioneer French priest, who accomplished so much in the early history of Vincennes.

Scoggin, the housekeeper of St. Leo's rectory, Highland Park.

Attorney Austin E. Walsh, who last week closed a big legal case at Montgomery, Ala., has been enjoying a sojourn on the Gulf and a visit to New Orleans and Pensacola.

Robert T. Barry, Washington correspondent and former local newspaper man, was here to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Barry, on Brook street, and attend the Derby.

John Harvey Beck, who was here for a short visit to his parents on West Broadway, sailed Saturday from New Orleans for Chile, South America, as mineralogist for the Guggenheim syndicate. Young Beck is a graduate of St. Xavier's College, and is fast winning distinction in the mining world.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zix announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Allie Zix, to Allen T. Long, of Newark, N. J., formerly of this city. The wedding will take place in June. The bride-elect is widely known in society circles and has been a prominent figure in numerous musical anniversary celebrations.

HONOR FATHER ABELL.

Last Sunday at Bethlehem Academy, St. John, Ky., the Rev. Father John J. Abell, one of the best known clergymen in the Louisville diocese, celebrated in impressive and happy manner the fortieth anniversary of his ordination to the Catholic priesthood. The celebration began with the jubilee mass in the morning in the Academy chapel, and was graced by the presence of Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue and thirty-one priests of the Louisville diocese. Father Abell was ordained in the Louisville Cathedral on May 14, 1876, and has filled charges at Columbus, Bardonia, Owensboro and St. John. During the day he was the recipient of many messages conveying congratulations and good wishes.

INTO ETERNAL REST.

News was received here Wednesday of the death of Brother Peter, the oldest member of the Xaverian Brotherhood in the United States, and formerly a resident of this city. Brother Peter was in good health two years ago when he visited Brother James and Brother Richard at St. Xavier's College, where he was known to the older students. Brother Peter was born in Ireland eighty-three years ago, came to the United States as a boy and worked for a time in Cincinnati, later coming to Louisville and entering St. Xavier's. He had been a Xaverian for fifty-three years. He left Louisville in 1892 and has since taught in Richmond, Va., Troy, N. Y., and at several places in Massachusetts, at the time of his death being a teacher in St. John's High School at Danvers.

K. OF C. INITIATION.

A class of forty will receive the degrees in the Knights of Columbus tomorrow afternoon at the club house on Fourth avenue, the conferring of the first and second degrees to be given by Louisville Council and the third by District Deputy Damien M. Cooper, assisted by C. G. Richerson, both of Elizabethtown. Following the initiation there will be a buffet luncheon and at 8 o'clock there will be a lecture session and smoker presided over by Lecturer Thomas Walsh, when addresses will be made by Rev. C. P. Raffo, Charles E. Taylor, Judge Sam Boldrick, J. J. Kavanagh, John A. Doyle, Dr. J. J. Shafer, Dr. T. H. Mulvey and Thomas B. Leahy.

EARLY SCHOOL CLOSING.

St. Leo's school of Highland Park will hold its closing exercises Sunday evening, June 4, this early date being selected in order to give the contractors an early start on the new school, which will be completed in time for the fall term. Rev. Father J. J. Fitzgerald announces that contributions toward the building will be gladly welcome in his struggling parish and further adds that the congregation will give ample security to anyone who can lend any money toward the erection of the school.

HIBERNIANS' GUEST.

At the meeting of Division 4, A. O. H., next Monday evening in Bertrand Hall, Rev. J. J. Fitzgerald, pastor of St. Leo's church, will be present as the guest of the members of the Limerick division, the meeting to be in the nature of a smoker arranged in his honor.

MAY PROCESSION.

The annual May procession of St. Leo's school children of Highland Park will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, the third Sunday of May being the regular date every year. In addition to the procession there will be vespers, benediction and sermon by Very Rev. J. P. Cronin, Vicar General of the diocese. Tomorrow will also be a notable event for many of the children of St. Leo's parish as a large class will receive their first holy communion at the 7:45 o'clock mass, which will be a high one. The confirmation date will be announced later.

GATHER ROUND MOTHER.

The children of Mrs. Caroline Shehan, of Bardstown, met with her last week to celebrate her eighty-fourth birthday. This is a beautiful custom which the children of this estimable woman observe with unfailing regularity. No matter where, or how far distant from "home" they are, they turn their faces homeward and assemble around the family board on their mother's birthday, and though the finger of time is beginning to leech the locks of these men and women they are still boys and girls to their mother. All of the children now living were present. They were William Shehan, of Early Times; Mrs. Mattie Meany and Charles Shehan, of Louisville; J. H. Shehan, of Lexington; Frank and Howard Shehan and Miss Emma Shehan, of Bardstown.

ST. PATRICK'S.

St. Patrick's new and spacious school hall at Sixteenth and Market will present a lovely scene on Sunday evening, May 28, when the children will hold their annual entertainment. It will be in the nature of a May offering to the Blessed Mother, for the principal part will consist of a play based on the apparition of Mary Immaculate to Bernadette, the little peasant girl at Lourdes. This play, garlanded by songs, addresses and marches by all the little ones, will prove a pleasant and happy May-time treat for all who may witness it.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

Members of St. Michael's congregation will entertain with a euchre and lotto party Monday afternoon and evening at St. Michael's Hall, 220 South Brook street, for which due prizes have been secured. Lunch and refreshments will be served and the public will be welcome.

ST. JAMES.

During the summer months the people of St. James congregation will have the benefit of three masses on Sunday, the hours being 6:15, 7:30 and 10 a. m. Rev. P. M. Monaghan will assist Rev. Father Willett, the pastor.

CLOCK RINGS AGAIN.

The town clock in the spire of St. Mary's church, New Albany, which has not been running for a year, has been started again, the Board of Works having agreed to pay $150 a year to keep it in repair. When striking the hours its bells can be heard throughout the city.

NOTED MEN SEE JACES.

Among the distinguished Easterners who were here the past week and who were interested spectators when the Derby was run, were James Butler, Philip J. Dwyer, Thomas Monahan, Thomas Healy, James W. Corrigan, Matthew Corbett, of New York; Fire Chief Lally, of Brooklyn, and Frank Nolan, the Albany millionaire.

OLDEST IRISHMAN PASSES.

When Cornelius Mulcahey, of Covington, passed from this life last week Kentucky lost its oldest Irish citizen. The deceased was born in Ireland 106 years ago. He was a pioneer resident of Covington and one of the founders of St. Patrick's parish, and had lived therein continuously.

COVINGTON.

Rev. Leo J. Stenger, ordained last week by Bishop Brossart, has been assigned as assistant to Rev. I. M.
Ahmann, pastor of St. Aloysius church, Covington. Father Stenger, who is the son of J. J. Stenger, of Bellevue, celebrated his first mass Sunday at the Sacred Heart church.

FATHER GAVISK.

For the first time in its history
a priest of the Catholic church presided at the forty-third annual National Conference of Charities and Corrections, held in Indianapolis, Ind., last week. Rev. Father
Francis H. Gavisk, pastor of St.
John's church, and one of the best known Indiana priests, is President of the conference this year.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES.

The Catholic Knights and Ladies of America will hold their national biennial convention in Indianapolis next week. Rev. Charles P. Raffo, of this city, is Supreme Spiritual Director, and Dr. Charles A.
Edelen, also of this city, is Supreme Medical Director. The convention will open Tuesday and continue for three days. Louisville will send a large delegation.

ROSARY IN IRISH.

In the Church of St. Catherine of Sienna, New York City, the Rosary is recited every Tuesday evening in the Irish language.

POTATO SOUFFLE.

Two cups hot mashed potatoes,
one cup milk, two tablespoons melted butter. Beat light, add yolks of two eggs and the whites beaten light. Bake in dish twenty minutes.

FOR RENT.—Two sunny rooms, second floor, suitable for light housekeeping or storage, at 3328
Western Parkway. Rent reasonable.

HOME NEXT FRIDAY.

The Louisville ball team will play its first game against one of the Eastern clubs this afternoon, beginning a three-game series with the Columbus club, which has proven the surprise of the league thus far,
and after finishing with Columbus will go to Toledo for three games.
At the close of the Toledo series the Colonels will journey home to play one series of three games with Columbus, then taking another road hike to meet Toledo and Indianapolis, meeting the former seven games in ten days. Although the series at Kansas City has proved a little disappointing, nevertheless the club has made a good showing on the road after a disastrous start and should come home with an even break or near so. The association schedule makers certainly handed the local club a lemon schedule, the club being away about two months consecutively with the exception of seven games, and as in above case doubling back to Toledo twice in one week. However, the local fans will give them a glad welcome in their short stay this week.

DISCUSS POPE'S MESSAGE.

Tuesday the Associated Press sent out word that President Wilson planned to discuss with Secretary Lansing within the next few days the message from Pope Benedict, delivered at the White House recently by Monsignor Bonzano, the Apostolic Delegate, relating to the continuance of friendly relations between Germany and the United States, and indirectly hearing on the possibility of bringing about a general peace in Europe.
As soon as he has conferred with Secretary Lansing the President will send a reply to the Pope.

AID DUBLIN SUFFERERS.

John McCormack, the noted Irish tenor, has arranged to give a concert for the benefit of the Dublin sufferers on Tuesday, May 23, in the Century Opera House, New York City, the theater having been donated by Otto H. Kahn. It is Mc-Cormack's intention to ask Cardinal Farley to act as Honorary Treasurer. It was in Dublin that McCormack spent his boyhood.
Mrs. McCormack's mother, sister and brother having made their home on Lower Abbey street, which was one of the sections burned, but at this writing it is not known if any of the McCormack family were injured or their house destroyed. The English Government is withholding all news of the Irish revolution and Mr. McCormack has found it impossible to get in touch with his family even by cable.

FOR WOMAN'S EYE.

Lingerie women are surging to the front.
The low collared blouse is the thing now.
Organdy is to be in great demand
this season.
The frilly petticoat has come into its own again.
Organdie in every color is to be worn this summer.
Chiffon is one of the prettiest
materials for a dressy bodice.
Blouses that are one mass of the finest tucks are coming in again.
Brown as well as gray are colors to be reckoned with from now on.
Capes are once more in high favor both for street costumes and evening dresses.
The short length skirt is an aid to the tall, thin girl, taking away from her height.
The new frocks that drop at the shoulders and are nipped in at the waist are very effective.
It would be hard to imagine a

CURTAINS AND DRAPERIES

IN LOVELY NEW DESIGNS.

The view from your windows is an ever-changing picture—a beautiful moving picture, if you will.

Then why hide it with heavy, costly curtains?

And again, when your house is seen from the outside it is the appearance of the windows that is first noticed. You want them attractive, don't you?

Quaker Craft Lace Curtains will veil your home from passersby without obscuring your view or shutting out the light and air.

Quaker Craft Lace Curtains are the latest development in window draperies.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

Ohio has ninety-one councils with a membership of 19,373.

Minnesota has fifty councils, representing a membership of 12,000. Eighty candidates received the first degree this month at Defiance, Ohio.

Louisiana has sixteen councils. Louisiana has passed the 4,000 mark.

Wisconsin has a membership of 10,050, with large classes awaiting initiation.

Fifty new members were recently received into the council at Spearville, Kas.

Tomorrow Louisville Council will initiate the second class for the present year.

Indianapolis Council has contributed $200 to the special fund for the Holy Father.

The Indiana enrollment increased 650 last year, bringing the membership close to 10,000.

The membership in good standing totals 356,401, an increase of 20,000 for the past year.

The Indiana State Council appropriated $36,000 for a building of a home for Catholic boys.

The Illinois State Council tendered President Wilson the loyalty, devotion and support of its 43,000 members.

Madison J. Walsh, of Washington, quite well known among the Kentucky Knights, was re-elected State Deputy for Indiana.

Rev. John F. Noll, editor of the Sunday Visitor, will be one of Indiana's delegates to the Supreme Council at Denver.

Southern Bend initiated seventy-five candidates Sunday, and tomorrow seventy-five more will receive the degrees at Terre Haute.

TRINITY COUNCIL.

The membership campaign of Trinity Council, Y. M. C., was brought to a close Monday night when seventy-five additional applications were received, making a total of about 125 during the campaign.

The contract was a nip and tuck affair between several of the teams and much interest and enthusiasm was displayed up to the last minute. The winner will be announced on next Monday night. The Literary Committee announced that on next Monday night Grand President Robert T. Burke would address the members of the council and urged all to be present to bear what the Grand President had to tell about what the Y. M. C. was doing throughout the Atlantic jurisdiction.

The initiation of the new applicants will be held on Monday night, June 5. On next Saturday night the formal opening of the four new bowling alleys will take place. This being another epoch in the history of Trinity Council and quite an addition to its already beautiful club house, a large turnout is expected. Theo. Henle was elected a member of the Executive Committee to fill the vacancy made by the recent death of Dr. C. J. Giesler.

On Monday night, May 29, an election for Recording Secretary will take place to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of A. H. Dienst. The following new Board of Governors was appointed: A. G. Schneider, J. C. Kirchdorfer, J. C. Nettle, F. H. Brinkman, Louis Clephas, W. J. Sandman and Theo. Henle.

FOUNTAINE FERRY.

The splendid attractions presented at Fountaine Ferry Park thus far have pleased the patrons of that popular pleasure resort, which has before it a most successful season.

Manager Bilger has been presenting an excellent vaudeville bill and the theater has been crowded at every performance. The park this year presents a beautiful appearance and the Natello ball concerts are of the most artistic character, being divided between the classical and popular numbers. For the tired Fountaine Ferry will prove an ideal resting spot.

DOUGLAS PARK MEETING.

Douglas Park Jockey Club is ready for its spring race meeting, May 29 to June 3, which will doubtless prove the banner one of its history. Manager John Hachmeister is making special preparations to entertain a capacity crowd on Kentucky Handicap day, June 3. Races are being made on the various roads and the appearance in the event of Roamer, Borrow, Waterblossom and Royal II., all of which are to have a workout in the stakes in the Clark Handicap today, in itself one of the big features of spring racing here, makes its prospects highly interesting.

TWIN CITY LEAGUE.

The pretty day and no counter attraction were in a measure responsible for the big crowds at the Twin City League games Sunday and stirring contests were furnished in three out of the four games, the action being the K. C. and Oriole game, the former winning by the one-sided score of 22 to 5. Mackin and Trinity staged a sensational battle, the West End Y. M. I. boys winning in a ninth inning rally, helped by errors, making four scores, the game ending 9 to 8. Olympians won over Bertrands in a 9 to 5 game, Scully's aggregation pounding the Bertrand pitchers for several long drives. The Champs playing without their star, Hogan, nosed out the Imperials in a 6 to 2 game, featured by good pitching. The schedule for tomorrow is Mackin vs. Olympians, K. of C. vs. Bertrands, Imperials vs. Trinity, Champs vs. Orioles. Standing to date:

Clubs	W.	L.	P.
K. of C.	5	0	1,000
Mackin	4	1	500
Champs	4	1	800
Bertrands	3	2	550
Olympians	2	3	400
Orioles	1	4	200
Imperials	1	4	200
Trinity	0	5	000

Much interest is being manifested by members and friends of the Twin City League in the offer of the Kentucky Irish American to send the two most popular members of that organization to the World's series this fall, with all expenses paid, which includes railroad fare, berths, hotel bill and admission to both games in the city where first vote is played. Reserved seats will be furnished the two winners, and this in itself is one of the features of the trip, as one of the greatest worries of those attending a World's series is to secure a ticket, many standing in line all night to secure admission. Remember the two most popular members of the league, and this includes players and officials, will be awarded this trip. Beginning today a ballot will be published good for one vote. In addition to this manner of voting ten votes will be given with each paid renewal subscription and twenty votes for each new subscription. Start voting early for your favorite or favorites.

RECENT DEATHS.

James McGuire, aged fifty-four, who was Captain of the No. 2 Engine Company twelve years ago, died Wednesday afternoon at Waverly Hills Tumor Hospital after a long illness. He is survived by a brother, Thomas McGuire, a policeman, and a nephew, Frank McGuire, aide to Assistant Chief Carroll. The body was taken to the home of his brother, from where the funeral was held.

By the death of Mrs. Mary E. Slattery, St. Mary Magdalen parish loses one of its most exemplary and highly esteemed members. She was seventy-nine years of age and widow of John J. Slattery, at one time President of the Todd-Donigan Iron Company, and had suffered with fortitude a long illness of nephritis. Mrs. Slattery is survived by three children, William B., Emmet P. Slattery and Mrs. Hamilton Service. The funeral took place Friday morning, attended by many sorrowing friends and relatives.

Nicholas Holloran, one of the most highly esteemed Irish Catholics of Louisville, went to his eternal reward Wednesday night at the home of his son on Hepburn avenue. For many years he was a dealer in tobacco and later in the grocery business at Eighteenth and High streets, and was over the friend of the poor. He was a native of Ireland and took much interest in the welfare of any from that land. Mr. Holloran leaves three children, Mrs. J. J. Flynn, of Beaumont; Edward J. and W. S. Holloran. The funeral took place Friday morning from St. Bridget's church.

READY TONGUE.

"Patrick," said a big man of the town, laying a patronizing hand on the young Irishman's shoulder, "I wish I had your tongue."

"Sure, sir," grinned Pat, "but 'twould do you no good without me brains."

MAKES CELERY CRISP.

Celery should be allowed to lie in water, in which a little salt has been added, for at least an hour before serving. This makes it crisp.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Denver Hibernians have inaugurated a series of lectures for their meetings.

The Irish fair at Portland, Ore., netted the order over $1,500 and will reduce the hall debt.

The field day of the Boston Hibernians on July 24 will be one of the biggest events of the year.

Division 1 meets next Thursday night. President Mark Ryan asks that every member attend this meeting.

The business of Division 1 next Thursday night will interest everybody. A large attendance is looked for.

Illinois will present Mrs. Mary McWhorter as a candidate for National President of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Crawfordville had a fine meeting and initiation Sunday week. Mrs. John Arthur, the State President, was present.

The New York County Board condemns England for the darkest crime England ever perpetrated—murdering those who sought freedom from tyrannous rule.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Minneapolis entertained the Irish History Club on Wednesday night, when Past National President Regan delivered an address on Irish literature.

IRISH-AMERICAN NIGHT.

Tonight is Irish-American night at the manufacturers' exhibit at Exhibit Hall, Fourth and Broadway, and a big crowd is expected to be on hand to enjoy the entertainment offered and at the same time acquire beneficial knowledge concerning the city's products. Attorney J. J. Kavanagh has been chosen by the Entertainment Committee as the speaker of the evening and an interesting address is promised.

Every citizen and housekeeper in Louisville should make it his or her business to attend this exhibit, being open daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., no admission fee being charged.

Next Tuesday evening has been designated as Avery night and the employees of that plant will be the guests of the exhibit, the following Tuesday to be set aside for the employees of the Dow Wire Works and Louisville Pillow Company. In connection with the exhibit tonight the following list of prizes will be awarded:

Ten dollars in gold, Louisville Cement Co.; six boxes of Cremol vanishing face cream, Allan & Co.; box Kis-Me gum, American Chicle Co.; case Anlin ginger ale; sack Ohelek flour; five sheets popular music, P. I. Burke & Co.; pound City Club tobacco; photograph, Caulfield & Shook; twelve cans Dixie Cleaner; baseball bat, Hillerich & Co.; box assorted pickles, Hirsch & Co.; belt, Hodapp & Miller; jar mixed pickles, Knicker & Lucas; quarter barrel Dolly Varden flour; handsome pillow, Louisville Pillow Co.; ten bars Magic-Keller soap; case Rivo Cola; quart Grand Dad whiskey; three pounds Peacock coffee; box stationery, Standard Printing Co.; flower box, Alfred Struck Co.; lead tea set, R. J. Thornton & Co.; dozen towels, J. S. Walker & Co.; three pounds Jay Zee coffee, Zinsmeister & Co.

FAST HORSES RACE.

The predictions that the Louisville Jockey Club spring meeting would surpass any ever held in this country have proved true. Despite the unfavorable weather there has been a tremendous attendance. Derby day breaking all records. The racing has been high class from the first, and the Clark Stakes this afternoon will prove a great drawing card as it will bring out the stars of the turf. The programme for next week is an excellent one and embraces the Juvenile Stakes on Monday, the Frank Fehr Stakes on Wednesday and the Kentucky Oaks on Saturday. Besides these there will be excellent fields and seven races daily.
